Global Unit Sales (Retail Sales) (Unit Sales in Each Region)

- Global unit sales stood at 109.4 thousand vehicles, down 6.5 thousand vehicles from the previous year. - Overseas unit sales increased by 10.5 thousand vehicles mainly in Asia, amid inflation, the rise in interest rates, etc., but domestic unit sales dropped considerably by 17.0 thousand vehicles, due to the misconduct for certification and the delay in supply of parts. Consequently, overall unit sales declined.

Sales Volumes in Indonesia, the U.S. and Thailand (Retail Sales)

Indonesia: Sales volume rose from the previous year, as domestic demand recovered due to the skyrocketing of prices of natural resources, etc.
Thailand: The sales volume of trucks mainly for construction and cargo transportation increased from the previous year, thanks to the healthy economy.
The U.S.: The sales volume of medium and heavy-duty trucks significantly increased from the previous year, as manufacturing and shipment were resumed in the second half of FY 2022.

Consolidated Sales of TOYOTA Brand Vehicles and Unit

-Vehicles: Sales dropped from the previous year, due to the decrease in production output of SUVs caused by the shortage of semiconductors.
-Units: The unit sales of IMV in Thailand increased considerably from the previous year. The unit sales in the U.S. increased slightly from the previous year, as the shortage of semiconductors lingered.

Analysis of Consolidated Income Statements [Year-on-Year Comparison]

Despite the continued depreciation of the yen, profits halved due to the increasing impact of domestic certification and deteriorating market conditions.

Consolidated Operating Income by Segments

Japan: Operating income declined due to the misconduct for certification and the shortage of parts.
Asia: Operating income rose considerably, thanks to the growth of revenues in ASEAN countries, mainly Indonesia and Thailand.
Other Areas: Operating income dropped, due to the material market conditions, the skyrocketing of distribution costs, etc. in North America.
